

Careers in Gerontology—Online Resources

The following websites often post career resources and openings for various roles in the gerontology field:

- From The Gerontological Society of America, “AgeWork is the only focused career site in gerontology....The site is easy to use and a bargain for gerontology-related professional job searches.”
<http://www.agework.com/agework/>
- “A service of Philanthropy News Digest, PND Jobs features current full-time job openings at U.S. foundations, grantmaking public charities, and nonprofit organizations.” <http://foundationcenter.org/pnd/jobs/>
- Idealist is a project of Action Without Borders. In this site you will find, amongst other things, “The best Nonprofit Career Center on the web, with hundreds of job and internship listings.”

- National Association of Area Agencies on Aging. “The National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (n4a) is the umbrella organization for the 655 area agencies on aging (AAAs) and more than 230 Title VI Native American aging programs in the U.S. Through its presence in Washington, D.C., n4a advocates on behalf of the local aging agencies to ensure that needed resources and support services are available to older Americans. The fundamental mission of the AAAs and Title VI programs is to provide services which make it possible for older individuals to remain in their home, thereby preserving their independence and dignity. These agencies coordinate and support a wide range of home- and community-based services, including information and referral, home-delivered and congregate meals, transportation, employment services, senior centers, adult day care and a long-term care ombudsman program.”, “Job Announcements are a member service of n4a. Free job postings are available only to AAA and Title VI members of n4a.” <http://www.n4a.org/jobs.cfm>
- Job Exchange, Home Care & Hospice—National Association for Homecare and Hospice. “Connect with the entire global home care and hospice industry!” <http://www.nahc.org/jobexchange.html>

- National Council on Aging (NCOA). This board helps people find jobs related to serving senior citizens.
